

Midwest Community Foundations' Ventures

2009 CEO Retreat

February 24-25

Lorain County Community College, Elyria Ohio

When you are FOREVER – What do you do NOW?

Tuesday, February 24th

10:00-11:00	Registration at Lorain County Community College
11:30 – 12:45	LUNCH Topic Speaker
	Economic Conditions and Financial Stress Dr. Mark Sniderman , Executive VP & Chief Policy Officer Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland
1:00 – 2:15	Topic Moderator Format
	Building Community Assets NOW and FOREVER Shelly E. Hendrick, Jackson Community Foundation Panelist: Brad Bumgardner, President of the Parke County Community Foundation, Rockville, IN Panel discussion of creative ways community foundations are continuing to encourage philanthropy in the current economy followed by open floor discussion.
2:30 – 4:30	Topic Moderator Format
	Making Community Impact NOW Cheryl Elliot, Ann Arbor Community Foundation Presentations on the journey to create a foundation strategy incorporating grantmaking and community leadership followed by table discussions.
6:00 – 8:00	Social Event
	Adam Joseph Lewis Center , Oberlin College Named "One of Thirty Milestone Buildings in the 20th Century" by US Dept of Energy
Bus provided from hotel	Hosts Marvin Krisloy , President of Oberlin College & David Orr , World renowned Chair of the Environmental Studies Program.

Wednesday, February 25th

8:00 – 9:00	BREAKFAST Topics
	National Standards & National Public Policy
9:00 – 10:30	Topic Moderator Format
	Sustaining our Operations Brian Frederick, Community Foundation of Lorain County Real-time electronic polling and interactive dialogue on issues related to operations, revenue, fees, staffing, etc. with a comparison to FSG research.
10:45 – 12:15	State Meeting Breakouts
12:15 – 1:30	LUNCH Topic
	What should you be asking your Investment Managers? Speakers George Mateyo , senior consultant and Jay Morgan , director of investment research and partner, Hartland Group