This learning lineup shows a preview of the 2020 programming offered by CMF. Events are added regularly and those listed are subject to change. Visit our website and social media channels and watch your inbox for the latest programs tapping into the sector's latest knowledge, resources and emerging practices to keep you at the cutting edge of the field. We look forward to bringing you national and local voices on topics spanning from theory to practical application, all centered around driving discussion and learning focused on issues critical to your work.

PROGRAM PARTNERSHIPS AND SERIES

FEFO SERIES

CMF collaborates with the Foundations Endowments and Family Offices (FEFO) to bring you a series filled with best practices on investing, addressing the unique challenges of managing family wealth, assisting with planning for optimal family legacy and helping to develop asset management talent in the West Michigan region. Events in this series will be published on the CMF website events calendar.

MIDWEST CORPORATE PHILANTHROPY WEBINAR SERIES

These webinars are designed specifically for corporate foundations and giving programs, made possible through CMF's partnership with Indiana Philanthropy Alliance and Philanthropy Ohio.

MIDWEST FAMILY FOUNDATION WEBINAR SERIES

This series, designed for staff and trustees with non-staffed or small-staffed family foundations, is presented through CMF's collaboration with Indiana Philanthropy Alliance and Philanthropy Ohio.

NCFP SERIES

The National Center for Family Philanthropy (NCFP) Series offers a monthly webinar with rotating topics focusing on family philanthropy. Complimentary webinar registrations are available for family foundation programming as a benefit to CMF members.

TRI-STATE WEBINAR SERIES

The Tri-State Community Foundation Webinar Series is a program made possible through CMF's partnership with Philanthropy Ohio and Indiana Philanthropy Alliance. The webinars are designed for, but not exclusively for, community foundations.

DOROTHY A. JOHNSON CENTER FOR PHILANTHROPY

CMF is proud to partner with the Johnson Center for Philanthropy in sharing information on programming, training and resources available to CMF members. Such opportunities will be highlighted in CMF emails and social media and shared on our website throughout the year. We also encourage you to visit johnsoncenter.org for tools, downloadable publications and much more.

CMF MENTORING PROGRAM

The Mentoring Program was created to ensure that a pipeline of diverse professionals receive the tools, strategies and resources needed to assume leadership roles in philanthropy. During the program, mentees receive executive coaching, engage in group learning and networking sessions, and they are paired with mentors who are experienced professionals in the philanthropic sector. Applications for the 2020–2021 cohort will be available in June 2020.

AFFINITY GROUPS

CMF's issue-driven public policy-focused affinity groups help to lead and support the collaborative philanthropic response to Michigan's most critical needs in key areas.

Arts & Culture	Michigan Grantmakers for Women & Girls
Health Funders	P-20 Education
Michigan Grantmakers in Aging	Rural Philanthropy
Michigan Forum for African Americans in Philanthropy	Talent & Human Resources

LEARNING COMMUNITIES

CMF's Learning Communities are opportunities for members to come together to learn, explore or test ideas around a specific topic or project. Learning communities can be short-term or long-term, depending on the needs of the members or duration of the project.
